CLARIFICATION #2

SN	Questions	Response of Millennium Challenge Account Nepal (MCA-Nepal)
1.	Please be informed that I have already submitted my application on the 27th April 2022 for the advertised position. Regarding daily fee rates of previous assignments for use in Attachment 1 to Form 4, I have mentioned the same currency on which my previous contracts are based – NPR in one contract and US $ in another. Is it a material deviation from the provisions of RFA? However, for this advertised assignment, the Form 4 allows to quote daily fee rate in any of the two currencies - NPR or US $. Please advise whether I need to make modifications to my application and submit again.	This is not a material deviation from the RFA. The RFA allows you to provide your historical rates in NPR or US $. Thus, if you have provided your historical rates either in NPR or in US$, it is acceptable. Thus, you do not need to resubmit your application.
2.	The clarifications to the questions are very clear to me and don't have any implication to my application already submitted. As I also see from the addendum that the application submission deadline is extended to 19th May which I suppose to have no implication to my already submitted application. Is my assumption correct, Please clarify.	Extension of submission deadline does not have any implication to the Applications that were already submitted.
